MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Manuscript Submitted by Vice Admiral Rufus L. Taylor, USN (Ret.), Former D&CI, to the Naval Institute

On 30 November 1972 Admiral Taylor called my office and left a message that the Naval Institute was very enthused about his essay, "Secrecy in Government," a copy of which he had previously sent me with the request that I determine if the Director would have any objection to its being published. On 1 December I discussed this with the Director and called Admiral Taylor later in the day to advise him that the Director had absolutely no objection.

Admiral Taylor called yesterday afternoon and asked that you give him a call before noon today. He wishes to talk with you about the manuscript which he submitted for publication to the Naval Institute.

Admiral Taylor said the Naval Institute is very enthused about his essay and wishes to print it in the February issue, which is being readied to go to press. Admiral Taylor told them his story could not be published until he knew if CIA had any objection to it. Since the issue is ready to go to press, the Admiral is anxious to get an answer from us.

Admiral Taylor also said that if you should wish to talk with anyone at the Naval Institute, you should talk with Commander Robert P. Brewer, the Editor.
